EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Richard Klar on May 19th, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 12 has been canceled.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The specific limitations of "...said data reader-writer is also adapted such that one or more additional swipes of said swipe card while the amusement device is in operation results in said enhanced function being further enhanced" in combination with the rest of structural features of the claims are not anticipated or made obvious over the prior art of record in the examiners opinion. For example, Lebensfeld discloses interactive amusement devices which teach a body 10, transport elements (legs), a microprocessor (60), a data reader-writer is inherent in the functionality of the device can be enhanced through the use of a computer connectable to the device (col. 9, lines 35-43). Mathieu discloses an interactive amusement device like that of Lebensfeld, which teaches a motor associated with a body and coupled to two transport elements (fig. 6, elements 42), a wireless receiver associated with a body (fig. 8, element 64), a unit wireless transmitter associated with a body and coupled with a microprocessor (figure 1, element 20), a remote wireless transmitter operably coupled with a wireless receiver (figure 1, element 46) and at least two wheels (fig. 1, elements 38). Hara '368 discloses a game system which teaches the use of a swipe card (1) to enhance the functionality of the playing components. However, prior art of record fails to teach or disclose the use of a swipe card which enhances the functionality of the device with additional swipes of the card during the operation of the device.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
